A Message from Our Shepherds

This week our country is remembering those who have given their lives for the FREEDOM we enjoy and take for granted so much. We should remember and keep in our daily prayers these families. Brethren, we are truly blessed and should be thankful to God for our FREEDOM. We should be even more thankful for our LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST who gave his life for our SINS. Do not neglect the opportunity to remember him each day.

Belt Line Road members are to be highly commended for their love of the truth and concern for others. Many times we go out of our way to help someone in need. Several of our members are sick, and sometimes we learn of someone having a hardship. Belt Line members always step up and make sure the burden is lightened. The elders don't have words to adequately "thank you" for your great support and generosity. Serving those that are sick, bereaved and in need is certainly not overlooked. Mission Printing is another area a good number of our members are involved with and working very hard. It is amazing how much work is done during the week. We think of this as being a weekend job. Not so! Several take work home with them, and bring it back completed during the week. Yet others come by the building during the week and do a job. This shows a great dedication of love towards doing God's work and making it available to the lost.

Your good works are not going unnoticed. The Apostle Paul said it best in Acts 20:32-35... "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shown you all things, how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

In the home, virtues such as love, compassion, honesty, truthfulness, kindness, and generosity are mostly learned by example. Families living together and worshipping together develop and learn by what they see around them; children are especially quick to imitate the behavior of their parents or older siblings.

We are truly blessed at Belt Line to have dedicated teachers and members who hold the truth dearly and lead by example using God's Word rightly.

Our Lord and Savior gave his all for the world to have forgiveness of our sins and a promise of eternal life for us who remain if we just do his will.

Pray for our sick and shut-in, and encourage those who are frequently absent that should be in attendance.

Dean Webb
